

I thank you all for being in my life during my stay here. The laughter, the food, the music, the family picnics and holiday parties all added to great love. That love is what I am thankful for.

I hope I made somewhat of a difference and added happiness to the world.

If our paths crossed, I was blessed! I hope you all live long and prosper to love and feel joy every day.

Thank you from the deepest part of my soul. My gratitude is overwhelming and humbling. We are all blessed...feel it!

With deep gratitude, optimism flourishes!

It is our moments of struggle that defines us. It is our compassion that empowers us. I ask of you all to be kinder, more accepting, open hearted, open minded and enjoy each and every soul you encounter.

Use social media to lift people not suppress them. We are all equal creatures of the universe.

I believe in each of you to empower and inspire people...

I know you can do this...please prove me right!

Char and our boys also lifted me to fight and survive. What great joy we had together...all the time. Memories that still lift me.

I was born in 1953 when Eisenhower was president. A very different time. I traveled much in my life using my passion for music and life, as my partner. I was once a strong force... but now a quiet subtle breeze.

I am contemplating the nature of mortality. It is complicated and clear, difficult and easy. I am ready and unprepared. I am at peace and agitated. The contrast of emotions and intellect lead me to spirituality, not religion. For me it is my purpose. I hope I have made a small difference. I hope my touch empowers someone to continue in their purpose!

My parents gave me, Vin, Pete and Annmarie a beautiful life. It was the memories of us playing music together I remember so well.

Playing and teaching music I will miss. It has defined me and gave me purpose. Every student inspired me. Every performance gave me reward.

I was able to develop a career from just a vision. I know you can do something to build on this...I dare you to do better! I know you can. Good luck!

Understand your beam of light will turn into the full colorful rainbow. Shine away!

I hope I earned my stay on earth...
I hope to meet again on the other side.
Onward and Upward...with love...
Thanks for putting up with me...
